Hanover County Community Services Board (CSB) provides counseling services. Counseling services are provided when it is determined that an individual who is requesting help for behavioral health or substance abuse issues is best served by meeting with a clinician or therapist on a regular basis, for a specified time frame, to focus on goals, objectives and strategies for solving problems together. These services are primarily provided in the clinic setting. Services include but are not limited to: psychiatric evaluation, authorization for treatment, medication evaluation, crisis evaluation, and more.
