Total Life Counseling, Inc (TLC) provides individual, marital and family counseling that integrates sound psychological, spiritual and social principles to help people grow in their life satisfaction. The practice's counseling principles help clients develop a positive self-image, emotional stability, communication skills, healthy thinking patterns, strengthen their ability to cope with stressful situations and enhance their physical, emotional, interpersonal and spiritual development.

Issues and disorders treated include anxiety, depression, eating disorders, grief and loss, addictions, stress management, sexual abuse recovery, attention deficit disorders, couples and family counseling, panic disorder and childhood behavioral problems. The counselors are trained as Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC) and/or as Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists (LMFT).
