Bequest Law provides estate planning services. Estate planning and elder law differ. Elder law can establish a plan and ways to preserve your income, money and assets, for your benefit and care. Estate planning focuses on distributing assets in a manner that is to your benefit and takes into consideration taxes. Additional services include but are not limited to:

- Wills
- Medicare and Medicaid
- Financial and healthcare decision-making through powers of attorney
- End of life decision making through advance directives or living wills

Service Area(s)
Loudoun County
