FAAA's Aging, Disability and Caregiver Resource (ADCR) Unit serves as the point of entry for aging services. Social Services Specialists who are well informed about services and programs available to older adults provide free information about community resources for older adults, persons with disabilities, and caregivers. FAAA intake staff are available in person, on the phone, and by TTY Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM until 4:30 PM. Multiple languages are spoken.
