New River Community College located in Dublin, VA operates the Adult Education Program offered in Floyd County. This program is designed to help adults improve and review math, writing, and reading skills, work toward a GED, prepare for college entrance exams, become better prepared for employment, become computer illiterate and impart family literacy values which are needed to help children with homework.

Multi-level day and evening classes are offered.

For More Information, Contact the NRCC Office of Transitional Programs at (540) 674-3682

English as a second language is also offered as a class.
