The Mary Morton Parsons Health Center at Westminster Canterbury Richmond provides short and long-term nursing care and rehabilitation for temporary illnesses, injuries, and chronic conditions. All 158 rooms are private. The Center seldom has availability but will accept direct admissions from the community whenever possible. Services focus on each resident's physical, mental and spiritual well-being.

Westminster Canterbury Richmond is a Life Care Retirement Community with 52 independent living accommodations, 169 assisted living apartments and 158 private rooms for skilled and intermediate nursing care.

Services and campus amenities include 24-hour care supervised by registered nurses, personal medical attention, rehabilitative and laboratory services, nutritious meals, a full-service bank, a beauty salon, and a barbershop. There is a range of social, educational, fitness, and spiritual activities available to all residents, including regular performances held in our 335-seat theater. Additionally, five physicians, a podiatrist, an audiologist, and a dentist have office hours on site.
