Eastern Healthcare Group, Bay Pointe Rehabilitation and Nursing provides a full range of long-term care options, whether it is skilled nursing, therapy, end-of-life care, or social services.

Long-term care is provided when a person requires assistance with his or her physical or emotional needs over an extended period of time. The need might be due to a terminal condition, disability, illness, injury or old age. Assistance with activities of daily living are provided including walking, bathing, dressing, using the bathroom, hygiene, managing pain, preventing unsafe behavior, preventing wandering, assistance with eating, and administering medications.

The facility offers 24-hour subacute nursing care, inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation, respite care, hospice services, and long-term care.

The care we deliver includes daily nursing, pharmacy, dietary and social services for all residents and patients, as well as a range of specific services according to the personalized plan developed.
