Tapp Family Home is a licensed Assisted Living Facility where care is provided for older adults who need some supervision or assistance with activities of daily living. Care is in a private home, not an institution, where the ten residents are cared for as family members. Three levels of care provided for one fee: residential, assisted living, and intensive assisted living. Private and companion rooms available, month to month agreement, and no entry fee is charged. Our facility offers home cooked meals, individual attention, assistance with hygiene and dressing, medication administration, laundry, and housekeeping. Also provided are daily scheduled activities, snacks between meals, transportation to physicians, Bible studies, and a weekly non-denominational worship service. Capacity is 10.
