Healing Works is Camie Lee's private practice blending Healing Touch and Reflexology. Healing Touch is a complementary, holistic modality using gentle hands on and energy based techniques to balance and align the human energy field.

Body, mind, emotion and spirit are touched through this therapeutic process which promotes general well being through relaxation and stress and pain relief. It helps a person self heal and heal more rapidly. It is available for surgical and cancer support, pain management, neck and back problems, grief management, hypertension, fibromyalgia, arthritis and much more. Sessions are held with the client fully clothed in a safe, caring and comfortable environment at the most convenient location for you, even in the hospital.

Individual appointments, introductory HT workshops, family instruction and support are available by calling Camie Lee (804) 339-1944. Camie Lee is a Certified Healing Touch Practitioner through Healing Touch Program, endorsed by the American Holistic Nurses Association. She also provides Reflexology-a therapeutic massaging of the feet, hands and head to stimulate healing.
