Hofheimer Family Law Firm counsels and represents women confronting or considering divorce. Areas covered are collaborative divorce, spousal support, property dispute, and child custody. The website has articles on coping and guidance during this period.

Second Saturday seminars are held in Virginia Beach, Newport News, and Chesapeake and offering detailed information on the legal, financial and emotional aspects of divorce. The seminars are for women only and are facilitated by family therapists and attorneys who represent women only and specialize in divorce and related issues. The goal of the seminars is to empower women with knowledge and give support as they contemplate or go through the divorce process.

Girl's Night Out is an opportunity offered every six weeks or so that gives women a super fun get-together at local restaurants. It is not a time to talk about your cases, but a time to talk about everything else, to loosen up and enjoy a breather during your time.

MeetUp is the best way to find a divorce support group. It is an online community designed to help people find others with similar interests. Whether you're into crocheting, want to join a book club, really enjoy indie films, etc., MeetUp is a great way to find and interact with other local, active groups.

All aspects of the divorce process are thoroughly covered and there are extensive question and answer sessions. Call 757-785-9761 for more information about times and locations or visit their website
