

Home Ownership Programs

Age Requirements

18 and over

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

Contact the office for more information.

Family

Yes

Intake Contact

Barbara Silberzahn

Intake Process

Phone or walk in.

Self Refer

Yes

Fairfax County Department of Housing and Community Development

<https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/housing/>

<https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/housing/homeownership>

Main

(703) 246-5087

TTY/TTD

(703) 385-3578

3700 Pender Drive, Suite 100

22030 VA

United States

Fee Structure

No Fee

Languages Spoken

English

The Homeownership & Relocation Services Division is the unit of the Fairfax County Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) that is charged with bringing affordable homebuying opportunities to Fairfax County's eligible first-time homebuyers. The Homeownership Division provides homebuyer counseling, hosts homebuying education classes, and has programs that offer affordably priced homes, mortgage and downpayment and closing cost assistance.

For more information, contact the Homeownership Resource Center (aka "the Storefront") at 703-246-5087.

Programs and Services include:

- Homeownership Resource Center
- Foreclosure Information for Homeowners and Renters
- First-Time Homebuyers Programs
- Homebuyer Education

The Homeownership Resource Center (HRC) is located on the first floor of the FCRHA building at 3700 Pender Drive. The Center is open weekdays from 9:00am-4:00pm except Wednesdays 1:00pm-4:00pm. The Resource Center provides access to both computers and staff to assist first-time homebuyers in their home search.

Service Area(s)

Fairfax County

Email

rha@fairfaxcounty.gov