Heaven Sent LLC - offers in-home personal care assistance and companionship to meet growing need for affordable alternative to assisted living arrangements. Provides quality non medical home care to seniors and their families. Companionship, meal preparation, transportation, garden care, light housekeeping, homemaker activities, laundry assistance and medication reminders, as well as respite care, are offered.

Long-term care insurance may cover these services. We have Alzheimer's/Dementia Specialists on staff and all staff are professionally trained. Long term care insurance may cover these services.

The purpose of Heaven Sent is to make a positive difference in the lives of the elderly primarily through a professionally supported, compassionate and caring group, by assisting in the daily lives of the elderly with the respect, dignity and honor they deserve.

Dementia and Alzheimer's care is available.
