Sunnyside is a Continuing Care Retirement Community offering independent living. It is the flagship community of the parent organization, Sunnyside Communities. Sunnyside is open to people of all faiths and nationalities and is a full-service, licensed continuing care community, offering residential settings in the choices of cottages, villas, and apartment homes. An entrance fee and monthly service fee are required.

Sunnyside is a full-service retirement community and a licensed Continuing Care Community, offering three levels of care. Residents typically enter on an independent level and progress through the continuum of care. An entrance fee and monthly service fee entitles the resident to a meal per day, weekly housekeeping services, weekly flat linen and laundry service, 24-hour clinic, transportation free of charge to local area shopping, etc., wellness center/fitness programs, complete interior and exterior maintenance, water and sewer, cable TV, in house telephone, 24-hour response system, pharmacy, podiatry, indoor pool, walking trails, planned events and activities, complete building and appliance maintenance and priority admission to assisted living or health care, as needed.
