Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community offers assisted living at Crestwood. Crestwood assists with activities of daily living while encouraging residents to live as independently as possible. Whether it is help with bathing or dressing, or assistance with medications, care is tailored for each individual.

Assisted living facilities are non-medical residential settings that provide or coordinate personal and health care services, 24-hour supervision, and assistance for the care of adults who are aged, infirm, or disabled.

VMRC offers Alzheimer's and dementia care also.

Capacity for assisted living and memory care is 106 residents
