The Virginia Home for Boys and Girls (VHBG) appreciates volunteers. Join us in building a community of care—individuals who work and play together to support the tradition of serving children at VHBG. Your efforts will raise awareness, raise funds and ultimately, allow for more of Virginia's children to receive counseling, a home...respite and safety. Even small contributions can have a significant positive influence, bringing hope to the lives of thousands of children each year suffering from abuse and neglect.

You can become a part of this community of support by volunteering, hosting an event or becoming a sponsor.

For more information on volunteering at VHBG contact Ashleigh Perkins and David LeFebvre at (804) 270-6566 ext. 125.
