Charter Senior Living of Newport News offers respite stays for seniors who need care after a hospital stay, or when family members travel out of town or simply need a short respite break from the stresses of caregiving.

Short-term stays are available which must be a minimum of 12 days, but can otherwise vary in length. Short-term guests enjoy housekeeping services, dining, community activities, transportation, and other amenities, as well as coordination of any necessary medical care and help with daily living activities.
