The Bay Lake Retirement and Assisted Living Community is an innovative retirement residence. At Bay Lake, you choose from a studio, one-bedroom, double suite, or an apartment within The Garden at Bay Lake, a special needs program. You then pay a reasonable monthly rate, dependent on the level of care. There are no entry fees to join the community. Capacity is 90 residents in assisted living and memory care.

From each window, there are views overlooking a golf course and community park. The Bay Lake Retirement and Assisted Living Community provides a secure and enjoyable living environment to meet individual needs while promoting independence and self-esteem through a supportive atmosphere.

Levels of care include:

Basic Assisted Living includes one of the Activities of Daily Living (ADL) listed below.

- Bathing;
- Dressing assistance;
- Medication monitoring and assistance;
- Assistance to and from meals and activities;
- Assistance with personal management of incontinence.

The Garden at Bay Lake provides the full benefits of assisted living for older adults with memory care and special needs.
