

Daughterhood.org's mission is to support and build confidence in women who are managing their parents' care. The daughterhood blog, website and social media links connect you — the care manager — to resources and a wholly unique perspective on our health and elder care systems. Through her writing and curation of resources, daughterhood's founder, Anne Tumlinson, coaches women and men to insist on excellent care and a meaningful experience for their parents

View PDF

Source

Daughterhood