Coordinated Entry System (CES) is an organized way to help the residents of the Prince William area who experience a housing crisis. The goal is to provide fair and equal access to safe housing and/or services. Call to inform us of your circumstances.

Our goal is to prevent eviction or assist Prince William area residents in accessing safe temporary or permanent housing.

- We listen to residents as they share their current living situation.
- We ask that residents work with us to answer some quick housing questions.
- We support residents in accessing rental assistance to keep their current housing or find a safe place to sleep.
- We will continue to work with residents as their situation changes.
