Event Description

We're exploring a topic each month of importance to older adults as they age. This month's subject is the need for social connections.

About the Event

Join us each month as AARP and Age-Friendly Mecklenburg present Age-Friendly Fridays, a series of virtual workshops that will explore a new topic each time that is key to older adults who are aging in their communities.

This month, we'll discuss the importance of social connections to health and happiness, and what you can do in 2025 to form new connections.

How to Join

Sign in to your AARP account or create an account to register for events. AARP membership is not required. You will receive an email with the Zoom link before the session.
