Lifelong Learning

Programs, also called continuing education and adult education, include classes, workshops and other educational programs specifically for adults.

Links

edX: Transformation through education

Source

edX: Transformation through education

Links

Internet Archive: Free Books, Movies, Software, Music

Source

Internet Archive: Free Books, Movies, Software, Music

Links

Senior Planet: Live Virtual Classes from AARP

Source

Senior Planet: Live Virtual Classes from AARP

Links

Oasis Institute - Lifelong Adventure

Source

Oasis Institute - Lifelong Adventure

Links

AARP Events and Resources Near You

Source

AARP Events and Resources Near You

Self-Assessment: Is Isolation Affecting Me?

You can take the Connect2Affect Self-Assessment for social isolation for yourself or someone you know.

Source

AARP

Links

Virginia Cooperative Extension

Source

Virginia Cooperative Extension

Article

Age in Action: PALETTE-An Intergenerational Art Program to Improve Health Care Delivery and Health Outcomes of Older Adults

This Age in Action newsletter explores how an intergenerational arts and movement program that pairs older adults and pre-clinical health care professions students provides benefits for all.

Source

Virginia Center on Aging

Article

Blaze A Trail To Reinvention

Today, older Americans are living longer and are more healthy than ever before. Many retirees are finding new inspiration in second careers, helping others, discovering new interests, and pursuing dreams.

Source

Administration for Community Living

Virginia's Community Colleges

Source

Virginia's Community Colleges

Pagination

- Current page 1
- Page 2
- Next page >>
- Last page Last »

Showing 1-10 of 20 Results