

Programs that provide emotional support, information and guidance in a variety of settings for older adults who are having mental, emotional or social adjustment problems that have arisen as a result of the process of aging. Geriatric counseling services are provided primarily by social services professionals including licensed social workers rather than psychiatrists or other medical personnel.

Article

Geriatric Care Managers Advocate for Older Adults — and Their Caregivers

Explore how Geriatric Care Managers can help older adults and their caregivers. These professionals, sometimes called aging life care managers, act as private advocates and guides for family members who want to ensure their loved one receives good care.

Source

AARP

Article

What Is a Geriatric Care Manager?

A geriatric care manager can help you and your family identify needs and find resources to meet your needs.

Source

National Institute on Aging

Links

American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry

Source

American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry

Showing 1-3 of 3 Results